

After a suitable trial period (usually one month) the Section leader and Conductor will discuss suitability of the potential new player and decide whether to agree to the player joining the band.

If agreed to offer a place, the Section leader needs to notify the Secretary of the new players name and provide the players contact details.

Secretary will then send a welcome email, together with a membership form to new joiner and ask for this to be returned to the secretary. Secretary will also register the new player on Muzodo and an email confirmation will go out to the new player on how to register on Muzodo and download the app.

Secretary will let the Treasurer know the email address of the new player so that contact can be made and a discussion can be held regarding the payment of the band subs.

Treasurer to contact the new player about payment options.

New player to arrange payment of the subs as per the agreement with the treasurer.
